

META—CHILD PSYCHOLOGY: “Freudian Trios”

You’ve come at a most opportune time, Agents! Cyrus “Cy” Kohsis, LICSW—Carmen’s amoral analyst and thieving therapist—has managed to steal a priceless historical landmark in between his study of children’s brains. He’s determined to heal his four patients’ problems with what he calls a fusion of Id and Superego...the resulting mess is what you see below. It’s up to you to use what you’ve learned to go on an “Ego Trip” and restore balance to these mangled minds!
