

Knot a Puzzle

(this is a puzzle)

GRAD

Recess just isn't any fun when everything is all tangled! Even eleven-year-olds know this!

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| Uncontrolled driving on top of, not through, water on the road | | |
| Pageant winner (2 wds.) | | |
| Instruct through performative example, or participate in a protest | | |
| Having two colors | | |
| Final part of a journey or project (2 wds.) | | |
| Yellow condiment component (2 wds.) | | |
| Incessant, like a "Story" with a luck dragon (hyph.) | | |
| Like some crypto tokens | | |
| Visual similarity, like between family members | | |
| Approve a document, often without inspection (hyph.) | | |
| Measurements for sounds or colors, inverse to frequencies | | |

Knot a Puzzle

(this is a puzzle)

GRAD

This puzzle requires scissors. Cut along dashed lines.

You only need one of each lettered piece, but, in case of emergencies (such as wind, or actual eleven year olds) we've provided a second set. The letter designations serve no purpose other than to help you keep track of the pieces.

