

PUZZLE-CEPTION

When you substitute other puzzle answers in the places where they fit, and resolve "Messing with Geometry", the answer changes from DISAPPOINT to DICAPRIO.

The image features a word search puzzle with two grids. The top grid contains the following words:

- S A H E
- D R T I
- C E T E
- S A P P
- R M A G N E T I C
- A L E T O R O W
- O L S P H N A Q U
- A L E P E S Q U A

The bottom grid contains the following words:

- E L G D R I A D
- R R E N L A R O
- A P C T A T A N
- L A P A R E R R L
- A Q U
- B L M B
- O L E P
- G R I E

A path of red letters is highlighted across the grids, starting from the 'M' in 'MAGNETIC' and ending at the 'O' in 'OLEP'. The path includes the letters: M, A, G, N, E, T, I, C, O, L, S, P, H, N, A, Q, U, E, P, O. Various geometric shapes like a cube, parallelogram, pentagon, triangle, circle, and cone are scattered around the grids. Teal lines connect these shapes to specific letters in the puzzle. A wavy line at the bottom left points towards the 'O' in 'OLEP'.
